

For 2005 Southern XC once again brings together the best venues and the best mountain bike event promoters in the South for a six race series that runs through from April to September. From the series opener at East Grinstead to the series finals at Checkendon it promises to be a great season. A true collection of classic venues make the 2005 series the one not to be missed. Our new Central Entries system makes entering races easier and you can chose any combination of the events on offer.

Southern XC brings together all the best venues, the best promoters and some classic MTB races are on the cards! Check out all the details on www.southernxc.com
